

Accessible Arts Calendar Summary

2018 Current Venues and Shows

Updated 10-5-18 –

The VSA Minnesota Accessible Arts Calendar (<http://vsamn.org/community/calendar> and available monthly by email) lists arts events that proactively offer accessibility accommodations such as:

ASL (American Sign Language Interpreting),

AD (Audio Description),

CC (Closed Captioning),

OC (Open or Scripted Captioning),

DIS (performers with disabilities), or

SENS (Sensory-friendly accommodations) which are inclusive for children on the autism spectrum.

The main Accessible Arts Calendar listings offer descriptions of shows, authors, directors, describer & interpreter names, ticket prices, discounts, dates for PWYC (Pay what you can) and more.

This Current Venues and Shows list supplements the Accessible Arts Calendar and is updated regularly on our website as a Resource under Community. It summarizes shows coming up at arts venues across Minnesota: plays, concerts, exhibits, films, storytelling, etc. It's limited to what we learn about and have time to include.

The entertainment venues (organized alphabetically by Twin Cities venues and then by Greater Minnesota venues) may offer accessible performances proactively or on request. If you discover corrections, accessibility features not noted, or if you arrange ASL / AD / Captioning, please contact VSA Minnesota (access@vsamn.org) and we will publicize them. (Words in GREEN identify some accessibility accommodations. We assume all auditoriums and bathrooms are wheelchair-accessible and theatres with fixed seating have assistive listening devices, unless noted otherwise.)

To subscribe to VSA Minnesota's free monthly Accessible Arts Calendar email:

(1) Send us your name, town and email address.

(2) Tell us if you want (A) ALL events, (B) ASL-interpreted & Captioned only, (C) Audio Described only, or (D) Captioned only.

(3) Tell us if you want: (A) a regular email, (B) a Word attachment, (C) a PDF attachment.

(4) Send to access@vsamn.org or call 612-332-3888 or 800-801-3883.

Thanks for your interest!

One of the signature features of the Science Museum's Year of the Engineer, Dream Big uses the Omnitheater's giant screen to showcase engineering marvels big and small – from the Great Wall of China and the world's tallest skyscrapers to underwater robots and solar cars. Produced by MacGillivray Freeman Films in partnership with American Society of Civil Engineers, Dream Big includes inspiring stories that put human faces on engineering careers, showing that we all have the potential to succeed and change lives for the better. For instance, viewers will meet Menzer Pehlivan, a geotechnical engineer whose career was influenced by a deadly earthquake in her home country of Turkey; Angelica Hernandez, a Mexican immigrant whose engineering interest started with her high school robotics club; Steve Burrows, a structural engineer for whom engineering marvels of the ancient past inform his approach to the future; and Avery Bang, a young woman raised in the Midwest who builds footbridges over impassable rivers in undeveloped countries.

Living in the Age of Airplanes Omnitheater film, showing Oct. 12 thru Jan. 3, offers closed captioning, audio description, assistive listening, a large print script and an annotated script for viewers with sensory processing issues. Filmed in 18 countries across all seven continents, Living in the Age of Airplanes explores the countless ways the airplane affects our lives – even when we don't fly. On any given day, rapid technological and mechanical advancements have led to a world in which 100,000 flights transport people and products between any two points on Earth in a matter of hours.

Narrated by Harrison Ford and featuring fascinating history, breathtaking visuals, and soaring sound, this Omnitheater experience is like no other – a tribute to one of the most extraordinary and awe-inspiring inventions of the modern world.
